The Audio Experimental Theater invites multimedia performers, including poets, playwrights, dancers, and sound sculptors, to investigate the audio dimension of their work by creating a program for radio broadcast.

This project was designed to provide artists who are exploring audio as a vital aspect of their work with the facilities and exposure available through the public media. Interested artists should submit by July 30, 1976 for consideration either a scripted or taped version of their proposed performance. Any submission should be accompanied by a stamped self-addressed envelope or container. Send proposals to Charles Raus, WBAI, 359 E. 62 St., New York, N.Y. 10021.
